CARNEGIE'S GIFTS.

Mr. Carnegie has given to the city of Norfolk a fine collection of books. The collection includes books of interest to the general public, and books of interest to the business community. The collection is now on display in the Carnegie Library, and is open to the public.

I asked Mr. Carnegie why he gives so much money to the city of Norfolk. He replied that he gives money to the city of Norfolk because he believes in the city of Norfolk. He believes that the city of Norfolk is a great city, and that it deserves the best. He believes that the city of Norfolk is a city of the future, and that it will be a great city in the future.

MOST VALUABLE RIVER FRONT AND WHARF PROPERTY IN NORFOLK FOR SALE.

By virtue of the provisions of a deed of trust executed to me by Andrew Armstrong and wife, and recorded on the 12th day of September, 1888, and in pursuance of the order of the Court of the City of Norfolk, Va., and by direction of the holder of the note thereon secured, I shall offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, at 12 O'CLOCK M., ON TUESDAY, THE 2D DAY OF MAY, 1899,

at the Real Estate Exchange, 236 Main street, Norfolk, Va., that most valuable River Front and Wharf Property, known as situated immediately west of Norfolk ferry wharf, and having a frontage of about 150 feet on the Elizabeth river, and particularly bounded and described in said deed as follows, viz: Beginning at the northeastern corner of the three-story brick building on the lot hereby conveyed to me by Andrew Armstrong and wife, and extending to the corner of the Norfolk County Ferry Dock, said corner abutting against the southeastern corner of the brick building now occupied by O. P. Smith, and running thence easterly in a straight line 17 feet, more or less, to the Norfolk County Ferry Dock; thence along the southeastern line of said lot, more or less, to the Port Warden's line on the Elizabeth river; thence along said Port Warden's line westerly 185 feet, more or less, to the centre of Roanoke Dock; being about 22 feet from the western edge of the wharf to the centre of said dock; thence along the centre of said dock northerly 160 feet, more or less, to a point opposite the northwestern corner of another three-story brick building on the lot hereby conveyed to me by Andrew Armstrong and wife, and extending to the corner of the Norfolk County Ferry Dock, said corner abutting against the southeastern corner of the brick building now occupied by O. P. Smith, and running thence easterly across said lot to the western side of the brick building first above mentioned, which is situated on the eastern side of said lot; thence along the eastern side of said lot and the western side of said building northerly 29 feet, more or less, to the northwestern corner of said building, which latter point is 118 feet, more or less, from the Port Warden's line on the Elizabeth river; thence from said northwestern corner of said building, and along the northern face thereof, easterly to the point of beginning of the northeastern corner of the brick building aforesaid, embracing within the boundaries aforesaid the wharves known as Campbell's and Maxwell's wharves, and all other structures and buildings within said boundaries, and all riparian rights and all other rights, privileges and appurtenances to the property appertaining to the lot or parcel of land above described.

This is the Most Valuable Wharf Property Ever Offered at Auction in Norfolk.

It is centrally located upon the most prominent part of the city's river front, next to the Norfolk Ferry wharf, and on the holdest water in the harbor.

TERMS.—One-third cash, balance in two equal annual installments, with interest from day of sale, payable semi-annually, secured by first mortgage on the property at the cost of the purchaser, with the privilege, at his option, of paying the entire purchase money in cash.

Any further information will be furnished on application to the trustee or to Messrs. Byrd, Baldwin & Co. or W. H. H. Trice & Co., auctioneers.
